

Life In The Thirteen Colonies

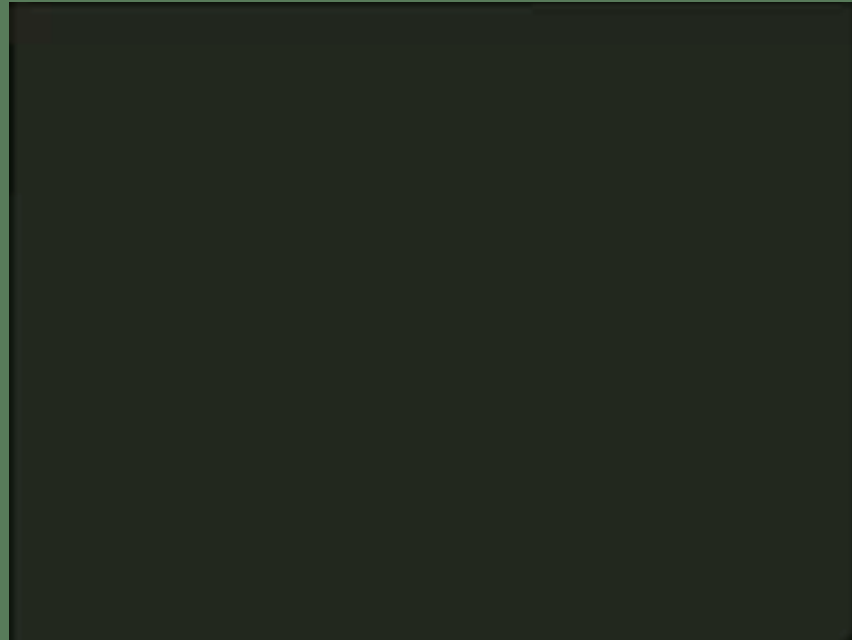

The Road To Revolution

English Influence On Daily Life

- ❑ As you watch the following movie clip, think of possible responses to this question:
 - How did British customs and government shape daily life in the Thirteen Colonies?

Discussion Questions

Discuss possible answers to your group's question about government and growing unrest in the colonies:

1

How did people living in the Thirteen Colonies expect to be treated by the British government?

2

Which was more important to the colonies: trade or farming? Why?

3

Why did the British government follow a practice of mercantilism, knowing it did not encourage loyalty from the colonies or friendship from other countries?

4

What actions or attitudes of the British government created early feelings of unrest which later built up in the colonies to the American Revolution?

Road To Revolution...

- ❖ Closing: Write two main actions or attitudes of the British government that began to push the colonists toward Revolution.
- ❖ Would these actions have had the same impact on citizens in port cities as on citizens in rural areas?